

"AM SURE IT HAS NO EQUAL"

Says Mrs. N. D. Johnson of Lung-Vita

HUSBAND USED IT

Had a Bronchial Trouble and Was Helped Greatly

"My husband has been bothered with a bronchial trouble for years and had tried all the different remedies that were recommended," says Mrs. N. D. Johnson, who lives at 302 Third-third avenue, North, Nashville, Tenn. In a statement given Jan. 18, 1918, "but he got no permanent relief until he tried Lung-Vita. He has used two bottles of the medicine so far and has been benefited greatly. In fact, it is a wonderful medicine and he would not be without it in the house. I am sure that it has no equal as a remedy for bronchial troubles."

For your cough or cold you can use nothing better than Lung-Vita. It usually requires only two or three doses of this medicine to break a cold. Get a bottle and try it. Lung-Vita is sold by druggists and dealers.—Adv.

OUT OF TOWN NOTES

GALLATIN.

Mr. Cort Anthony and Mr. and Mrs. William Simmons of Cleveland, Ohio, were visitors in Gallatin last Wednesday, while en route to Scottsville, Ky. Miss Minnie Winston of Nashville is visiting relatives and friends here. Mr. Frank Williams, after spending several days with his family has returned to Indianapolis, Ind. Mr. Carroll Harris of the Pullman buffet service is at home for the present. Rev. C. E. Watkins of Blythe street is reported on the sick list. Messrs Hart L. Winston and Robert Harris journeyed to Nashville, Tuesday evening where they witnessed O'Bryan's minstrel at the Vendome theatre. Mr. West Gunn has returned after spending several days in the city of Indianapolis, Ind., visiting his daughter and son. Marriage license were issued recently for the marriage of Mr. Joe Ford to Miss Willie Turcotte. Mr. William Barr of Indianapolis, Ind., is here on business this week. The fuel situation in this town has reached the critical point. The coal dealers have been without coal for several days with no prospect of getting any soon. Many families are suffering for the need of fuel. Who was the fellow that called this state, "Sunny Tennessee?" Sir N. N. Reynolds, Grand Lecturer of the Knights of Pythias for the Grand Jurisdiction of Tennessee, was in our midst on last Monday, en route from Chattanooga. Sherman would have been right if he had combined war and this cold weather. At this writing Mr. Ruben Harris is reported on the sick list.

IN MEMORY.

In sad and loving memory of our beloved and devoted mother, Mrs. Nancy Parker, who passed away November 18, 1917.

A loved one from us has gone, her voice is loved is still, her place which is vacant in our home, never can be filled. God recalled his love, his love has given and though her body moulds, her soul is safe in heaven. And she waits forever, gone and left us here to weep until we are called to follow her in the grave to sleep and smile no more. Could she stay to cheer us with her love, we hope to meet with her again in the bright world above. Sleep on dear mother, not dead but sleeping.

Your daughter,
Eliza DeMoss, Gallatin, Tenn.

AVONDALE.

Mrs. Onie Sargent and Mrs. Esther M. Franklin have returned from Nashville, where they were the distinguished guest of Mrs. Edna Cate Harris. They reported a most pleasant time. Miss Jennie B. Cantrell, of Hendersonville was the guest of the hostess on Sunday. Mrs. Eliza Smith, Mrs. Birda Brown and the little son of Louisville, Ky., are here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Gillespie. We have been snowed out by the help of the Almighty, we are yet alive. Mrs. Emma Taylor and Mrs. Laura Cullen were the guests of Mrs. Emma Gillespie Wednesday. We received messages from our soldier boys from time to time. They are stationed at Camp Stewart, Newport News, Va., 372 Infantry, B. B. Co. K. They state they are enjoying good health and are in good spirit. We wish the much success. Mrs. E. M. Franklin is now visiting her aunt, Mrs. Luella Starks at Station Camp. Mrs. Waddie Gillespie is at home for the remainder of the winter. We wish for each and every one a prosperous New Year. The many friends of Miss Sophie E. Love of Avondale were surprised to hear of her being married to Mr. Harvey Crutcher of Nashville. We wish for them a long and prosperous life. We learn the bride and groom are now at Alliance, Ohio, where they will make their future home.

FAYETTEVILLE.

Since our last issue we have had some very bad weather and cold supply at the yards has been so low that when our cars were placed on the side track the dealers could not deliver it fast enough, so the people, both black and white hired wagons, carts, autos, wheelbarrows and even carried it in sacks. So the dealer just had to let their teams stand till the citizens had gotten their share of much as they possibly could, and then drive up and finish for those who did not have the extra twenty-five cents to pay for an extra wagon and some were left without it, but after all we are reminded of the sayings of our blessed Lord and Master when he said "Work while it is day for no man can work when night comes." Again we are just repeating what we have said. So let us without debate go back to the days of our fathers and we will get on a deal better, at least have something to eat. Wood to burn, and rest by the fire in winter time. Mrs. Cora Common and Mrs. Cornelia Hickman of Huntsville, Ala., Mrs. Ross Hickman of Dayton, Ohio, were pleasant callers at Mrs. W. H. L. Reynolds', who is sick in bed at this writing. The visiting party were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Buchanan on W. Market street. Mrs. Mary Wilson spent the holiday in Nashville and reports a pleasant time, she was visiting her son, James. Mrs. A. J. Buchanan's brother came to see her Xmas, she gave a dinner in his honor, which was enjoyed by some of her choice friends, among whom were Mr. A. J. Hickman and Miss Virginia Commons and others, whose names we failed to remember. Mrs. Lizzie Commons, Mrs. Francis Todd, Mrs. M. Brown, Mrs. Mary Ellen Lamb, Miss Aleese Commons were among the sick cheerers, Tuesday to see Mrs. Mary L. Taylor, Mrs. W. H. L. Reynolds, respectively. Well had you ever thought, do you remember or were you ever taught to read the signs of the times, if so, subscribe for the Nashville Globe and read of such news as Rev. J. A. Jones, D. D., former president of Turner College, Shelbyville, Tenn. Dr. James Weldon Johnson, editor New York Age, contributing Capt. Hadley third battalion, 372nd Infantry regiment, U. S., on the Negro and Americanism, Hon. Wm. Harrison of Oklahoma City, on race and Mrs. Malchiel Fleming are the proud parents of a daughter who arrived January 11, 1918. Misses Clara and Annie B. Davis are boarding with Mr. and Mrs. Brown Wiley, attending the Dunbar High School. Mrs. Lida Lee has accepted the Prospect school five miles west of the town, which she will continue five months. Mrs. Madama Sloan is on the sick list. Mr. J. Livingston Whitlow has returned to Humboldt after spending a while here on the account of illness. Dr. C. M. Gloster spent the week-end in Brownsville, his former home, with friends who were glad to see him and hear of his success. Lieut. Gloster is stationed at Camp Funston, Kans., as a member of the Medical Corps, and was home on the account of the illness of his mother, Mrs. J. R. Gloster of Memphis, Tenn. Mrs. Cap Cooper departed this life January 19, 1918. He leaves a wife, Mrs. Lillian (Dixon) Cooper, and several small children who have the sympathy and prayers of all during their bereavement. The funeral services were conducted at Farmer's Chapel by Rev. S. P. Morrow. Owing to the severity of the weather there were no services at either church last Sunday. A number of the men seeing the necessity of caring for those less fortunate agreed to organize a Relief Club to contribute to those who are in need. Monday of this week at the Pythian Hall. This organization will meet each Monday during the cold weather. An invitation is extended to every citizen who is in favor of same. Mr. W. J. Leigh, a progressive business young man, is the active president. Mr. C. W. Whitlow, partner in the H. C. Moore of the city of Nashville, is the efficient secretary. Mr. Robert Taylor is out after a recent illness.

COLUMBIA.

A sad and deplorable accident happened here Sunday night, January 13th when the house in which Mrs. Hannah Brown lived on Frierson street was consumed by fire and she perished in the flames. She had lived alone for many years, seemingly from a matter of choice. Her charred bones were gathered together by the undertaker and moved to the home of her nephew, Mr. Walter Green, Sr., where the funeral was attended by Dr. C. H. Boone, pastor of the Presbyterian church of this place. St. Paul of which church she was a member, assisted by Rev. Buckner Frierson. Mrs. Brown was a sister of the late J. B. Green and the following were her nieces and nephews, Messrs J. H. Slaten, Walter Green, Jim Black, Russell and Uylene Steag, Miss Samella Green of this place and Mrs. Nettie Barton and Mrs. L. Caruthers of Nashville and Mrs. Florence Fleming of Cal. Mrs. Helen Brown Morton died in New York City. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brown of 10th street received the sad news of the death of their daughter, Miss Mary Green, who was living in New York and that the body would be shipped to Columbia. The weather conditions and the irregularity of trains has caused the delay in the arrival of the remains. More will be said about the funeral in the Globe later. Mrs. Minnie Hawkins is confined to her home on account of sickness. Mrs. Nettie Burton of 1625 State street, Nashville was here to attend the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Hannah Brown. Mrs. Emma Wood is very much improved after several weeks' sickness. Mrs. W. H. Ogletree was called to St. Louis on the account of the death of her daughter, Miss who is in school in Turner College and was considered quite ill. Mrs. John Brown, Logue and Little son, Elma Brown, arrived from Chicago Sunday morning.

We wish to thank the many friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy for the bereaved family. Mrs. Hannah Brown, who was burned to death, January 13th. I was not in safety, neither had I rest, neither was I quiet, yet trouble came.—Job. 3:26. Mrs. Mattie Barton and Brothers.

BELLS.

Snow, oh, we are having it. There was no service Sunday at all. Mr. Louis McGather was confined to his room one day. Mrs. L. H. Thompson, the last few days of her dear life and passed away without a struggle. She was eulogized at the family residence, Rev. J. T. Martin officiating. All that was mortal of this dear girl was laid to rest in the city cemetery Wednesday, at ten a. m. A large concourse of sorrowing friends witnessed her burial, which was very sad. In the death of Miss Nola the community loses a sweet singer and a gifted speaker. The home loses that sunshine which her sunny disposition invariably reflected. Mother, father, two sisters and two brothers, as well as a host of friends are left to mourn her departure. Mr. H. N. (Mike) Walker has enrolled at A. and I. State Normal, Nashville. Mrs. Mabel (Franklin) Sneed of Chicago, Ill., has returned to Chattanooga after a most pleasant visit to Mrs. W. J. Astarr. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hyatt have purchased a fine horse and brand-new buggy. The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Cummins will be glad to learn that their only daughter, Miss Carrie, who is at Orlando, Fla., has recovered and has returned school, and will make her grade and evidently be promoted in February. Miss Lemon Barnett who has been a victim of typhoid fever in Chattanooga at this writing, Miss Lora Marbury came down from Chattanooga to attend the funeral and burial of her friend, Miss Nola Stephens. She was accompanied by Mr. C. Stephens, brother of the deceased. Several persons here contemplated attending the closing exercises of Whitwell School, Miss J. A. Lichtfoot, teacher, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stratten and little daughter, Miss Verna Alvis, who have been in Indianapolis, Ind., since last April, spent a few days in our city, the guests of Mrs. J. M. Hawkins. They were en route to Rome, Ga. Mrs. Emma Staley and Mrs. Alf Johnson are on the sick list. Mr. T. Martin has returned from Nashville on a visit to her mother. The rally at the Bethlehem Baptist Church resulted in $84.00 Sunday, the 20th. It is continued through next Sunday. The Missionary Society met with Mrs. J. McElroy Monday, this week. Fourteen persons were present. Will meet next Monday with Mrs. McElroy again.

BROWNVILLE.

A marriage of much surprise to a very wide circle of friends not only in Brownsville, but in other communities owing to the prominence of the couple, was that of Miss Grace Elizabeth Melvin of Brownsville, Tenn., which took place at the home of the bride's parents Wednesday evening, January 16, 1918. The Rev. O. S. Harwell officiating. The ceremony was witnessed by parents and a limited number of guests. Those who witnessed the same were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Rufus, Dr. W. J. O. Leigh, Mrs. Jennie Edward and Miss Minnie Locke. The bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Melvin of Humboldt. She is a very well accomplished young lady. She was the organist of the First Baptist Church, also one of the prominent teachers of Carroll County and was a very popular young lady of Brownsville. Mr. G. F. Melvin is a progressive physician of Brownsville who has a lucrative practice. They are at home to their friends, cronies of Cherry and Tynus streets, Brownsville, Tenn. Their many friends wish for them a happy voyage on the Matrimonial Sea. Miss Inez Currant of the St. Luke neighborhood, who is the house guest of Mrs. Martha Gill, has as her guest a very well accomplished young lady, Miss Belle Taylor, who is a member of the First Baptist Church of Brownsville. Another marriage of much surprise to a large circle of friends will be that of Miss Inez Currant to Mr. Lawyer Snipes which will take place at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Gill, Wednesday eve, January 23, 1918. Miss Sadie Leigh, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Leigh has been quite ill, but is convalescent. Mr. Evelyn Weaver has been in the hospital for several days. Mrs. Ben Turner, a member of the faculty of Dunbar High School, had a painful accident Wednesday afternoon of last week while on sleigh riding. We are glad the accident was not more serious. She sprained an ankle. Mr. Otis Hesse of Chicago, Ill., is home for an indefinite stay. Mrs. Mary Gary is on leave after recent illness. Little Annie Belle Taylor has recovered. Elzora, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Davis, had a painful accident last week. The mother had the little one in a rocker and the older daughter, Jennie, a little girl of three years, while rocking the baby, it fell out in the fire. I was burned in the face and on one hand. It is much improved now. Mr. Foster Goodman, a progressive planter of the Willow Green neighborhood died Monday of this week, January 21, 1918. He leaves a wife who has the sympathy of many in this bereavement. The funeral services will be attended at the Willow Grove Baptist Church during the week by Rev. B. V. Young, the pastor. Mrs. Lula Beverly has been indisposed for several days. Mr. Robert McLain is quite ill. Mrs. Betsey (Taylor) Baulch is ill. Mr. J. H. Scott and Mrs. A. Boyd, who arrived last week, Miss Inez Currant is the house guest of Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Gill this week. Mr.

STOPPED COURT TRIAL

AND TIED THE NUPITAL KNOT—GROOM FROM FREMONT.

Special to the News. Monroe, Mich., Jan. 16.—Thomas Winstead, 34, molder of Fremont, and Blanche Reames, 39, of Covington, Ky., both colored were married here this afternoon by Judge Bethel. The couple entered the court while the trial was in progress, and attorneys were arguing a case. The court stopped proceedings until he could tie the nuptial knot and send the happy couple on their way rejoicing. The court room was crowded at the time and the audience showered the couple with congratulations.

DR. WELLS' GUESTS.

Mrs. Alma Wells Given and Little daughter, who have been the guests of her mother, Dr. Wells, for several weeks, left this Tuesday evening for her home, Norfolk, Va. Mrs. Mary E. Thomas of Arizona, Dr. Wells' sister, who has also been our guest for three weeks, will return home the latter part of the week. There were many social functions given in honor of these ladies, among the hostesses being Mesdames J. C. Price, I. B. Scott and Mrs. A. Boyd. Their stay was a pleasant and enjoyable one.

SPECTACULAR PAGEANT

DIG MILITARY PRODUCTION BY 153RD BRIGADE.

Brigadier General Malvern Hill Barnum is taking a very personal interest in the military production which the men of the 153rd Brigade will produce at the Mendelshon Hall in the city of Rockford, sometime in the near future. The exact date will be announced later. The General has requested all Company Commanders to lend Lt. Frant L. Dry of the 365th Infantry and Building Secretary Edward L. Snyder of the "Y" whatever assistance necessary to make this gigantic production a howling success. Lieutenant Dry, formerly Band Master of the great Tuskegee Institute, is producing this pageant, and each day is training the chorus and orchestra with pep and snap. The Lieutenant is entering into the spirit of the play in his usual way of conducting a band. This is the first time that the public generally has had an opportunity to see the daily routine through which soldiers are carried in preparation for their great task "over there." The pageant will be entitled "A Day and Night with Gen. Barnum's 153rd Brigade," and will be divided into two acts. The first act will consist of a reproduction of the daily activities of the National Army soldiers. The second act will be centered around a program usually rendered at the "Y," showing what is being done by this organization in keeping up the morale of the men in khaki. The officers who are taking an active part in helping Lieutenant Dry to put this production over are: Lt. Chas. C. Dawson in command of scenery and stage decoration; Lt. Harrison W. Black, compilation of program; Lt. Clarence H. Payne, special feature work; Lt. A. P. Alberg, boxing and wrestling; Lt. Jesse L. Kimbrough, bayonet and trench warfare; Lt. Walter H. Smith, Assistant to Lieut. Dry; Capt. Jas. G. Hollinsworth, calliothes, Lieut. A. F. Pitts, Machine Gun demonstration and Secretary Snyder will furnish done for the paucers.

The production will, in addition to being the first production pulled off by the members of the new National Army, be especially interesting in that it will contain some unique stunts by distinguished artists to include among others, Muscular Jasper Taylor, trap drummer and eccentric; Asychron player, formerly of the famous "Handy" Band; Violinist Earl T. Blevins and Carl Dickerson; Private Richmond, musician; Private John Jenkins, formerly of the Billy King Stock Company; Sgt. Rosier, who starred in the photo play, a great military production, entitled, "When the call comes," of Corp. Thompson, the famous pianist. In the chorus will be the voices which were conspicuous for their rare musical quartette talent in the quartette and glee clubs of Morehouse College, Fisk University, Tuskegee Institute and other noted schools throughout the country. The solos will be taken by Sgt. Ira Payton, Corp Paul Dyon, Sgt. Pruitt, Private Morton Smith, Private Bailey, Port Crabtree and other members of the 153rd Brigade.

MRS. PAUL C. HUNTER AND LITTLE SON IN NEWPORT NEWS, VA.

On arriving in Newport News Mrs. Paul C. Hunter was agreeably surprised to be met by the boys of Company G of Nashville, now known as the K Company 372nd Regiment. The party that greeted Mrs. Hunter and son was as follows: Lieut. Doug. L. T. Robertson, Captain Joe Dobbins, Capt. Wm. Stewart, Bugler Robert Starks and Mr. Paul C. Hunter who is employed by the ship building company of that city. Mr. and Mrs. Hunter have daily trips to the camps and they wish it to be known that the condition of our boys is the best that can be obtained. Capt. C. O. Hadley and Lieut. Alley Walker have won the reputation of having the best drilled company in camp. Some of the companies are as follows: Mass., Conn., Md., Ohio and Penn., including the white companies.

GERMAN ALIENS ORDERED TO REGISTER

By Order of the President of the United States Under Direction of Attorney General of the United States.
